

NEW YORK YACHT CLUB

NEW YORK, USA

John Cox Stevens and eight other progressive New York yachtsmen founded the New York Yacht Club in 1844. In 1898, NYYC Commodore J. Pierpont Morgan donated three lots on West 44th Street in New York to build a new clubhouse. The Club acquired Harbour Court, in Newport, R.I., the former summer home of Commodore John Nicholas Brown, in 1987. It serves as an on-the-water clubhouse. The Club was the keeper of the America's Cup from 1851 to 1983.

NYYC placed second in the inaugural Global Team Race in 2018 and placed third in the 2019 Global Team Race.
