

ROLEX NYYC Invitational Cup 2021

Q&A #1

Question:

When is it acceptable to delay taking a penalty?

Answer:

For safety reasons, when a boat intends to take a penalty:

- 1) from the moment she reaches the zone of the windward mark, she may delay exonerating herself until getting well clear of the zone of the offset mark, or
- 2) from the moment she is approaching the leeward gate, she may delay exonerating herself until getting clear of the zone of the leeward marks.

Q&A #2

Question:

Do the umpires intend to interpret the IC 37 class C11 rule as written or is there a special interpretation for this event?

Answer:

The umpires intend to interpret the IC 37 class C11 rule as written. There is no special interpretation for this event.